MISCELLANEOUS READING.

COMMUNICATED. ON THE REV. J. F. HOFF'S LEAVING HIS PARISH IN VIRGINIA. Wherever sickness or great sorrow call,

He furthest went, to visit great or small. Ne'er cold nor heat he failed to brave. Blessed example to his flock he gave! "Tho' holy in himself, and virtuous, He still to sinful men was mild and piteous, Ne'er of reproach imperious or malign, But in his teachings soothing and benign." To draw the flock to Heaven by reason fair, And good example, was his constant care-From day to day, from hour to hour, He spoke of Christ's almighty power

He prayed the Holy spirit now Our hearts to turn from sin away, That to the Saviour we might bow, And never more from Him should stray!'

To robe our soul's in raiment white,

And fit us for the courts of light;

Come Saviour! now our spirit cheer, The 'troubled heart' wants comfort here; Prepare us for that place above, Where all is purity and love! Around us, Father, Saviour, Head, Thy circling arms of mercy spread! Together may we find a place of rest, In the bright home of all the blest, Where never more shall there be night, There Jesus shines forever bright!
